FRANK O'BANNON, et al.,	)
Defendant.	)

STIPULATION TO ENTER FINAL JUDGMENT AND STIPULATION AS TO SCHEDULE FOR PLAINTIFFS TO SEEK ATTORNEYS' FEES

Come now the parties, by their counsel, and say that:

1. On July 28, 2000 this Court entered its preliminary injunction in this cause.

2. Defendant appealed this decision to the Court of Appeals which affirmed the decision.

3. Defendant then petitioned for certiorari to the United States Supreme Court which, on February 25, 2001 denied the petition.

4. The parties stipulate and agree that the preliminary injunction should now be made a permanent injunction and the July 28, 2000 decision should be made a final decision of this Court.

5. The parties enter into this Stipulation because they believe that current governing precedent interpreting the First Amendment precludes the Defendant from erecting the proposed monument containing the Ten Commandments on the Statehouse lawn. If there is a change in governing precedent allowing government displays of the Ten Commandments, the Defendant reserves the right to file a motion under Rule 60 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to lift or modify the permanent injunction agreed to in this Stipulation.

6. The parties further agree that the time provided for in Rule 54(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure should be extended and that plaintiffs should be given thirty (30) days from the date this Court enters final judgment to file their motion for attorneys' fees in this case.

WHEREFORE, the parties stipulate and agree that:

a. The preliminary injunction previously entered in this cause should be made permanent and the July 28, 2000 decision should be made the final decision of this Court.

b. The time provided in Rule 54(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure should be modified and plaintiffs should be given thirty (30) days from the entry of final judgment to file their motion for attorneys' fees.
