Other: Page 2 Part III Line 4: Becket is a non-profit, public-interest law firm with a mission to protect the free expression of all faiths. Becket exists to vindicate a simple but frequently neglected principle: that because the religious impulse is natural to human beings, religious expression is natural to human culture. We advance that principle in three arenas-the courts of law, the court of public opinion, and the academy-both in the United States and abroad. At Becket we have defended the religious rights of people from "A to Z," from Anglicans to Zoroastrians. Our supporters represent a myriad of religions, but they all share our common vision of a world where religious freedom is respected as a fundamental human right that all are entitled to enjoy and exercise. Becket relies on its own legal team, and its lawyers are renowned experts in litigating this Name of the organization

Form 990 p 9: Government Grants

The Employee Retention Credit is a refundable tax credit established by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act), expanded under the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021 and extended by the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021. The Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act ended the availability of the credit on September 30, 2021 for most employers.

The credit was designed to encourage employers to keep employees on their payroll and continue providing health benefits during the COVID-19 pandemic. Employers are eligible for the credit for quarters from January 1, 2020 and September 30, 2021 during which a significant decline in gross receipts was experienced as defined in the Acts. The amount of the credit is based on a percentage of qualifying wages paid to an employee between March 12, 2020 and September 30, 2021.

Becket has determined the employee retention credit is a conditional grant where the conditions are that payroll costs must be incurred during the qualifying periods and a significant decline in gross receipts is experienced, both as defined in the Acts.

Becket filed amended payroll tax returns requesting credits totaling $435,677 in September 2021. As the conditions of the employee retention credit were met by September 30, 2021, Becket has recorded employee retention credit income and a related receivable on its September 30, 2021 financial statements.
